The Cortelyou situation is still vexing the Republican national leaders, and yet in this matter they admit that they are of no more importance than a fly on a window pane. The feeling became so acute to-day that Representative Lucius N. Littaner, the President's personal friend and adviser, wired to the President, at Washington, that Mr. Cortelyou ought to come mediately to Chicago.

The word was passed around to-night that Mr. Cortelyou wil arrive here on Wednesday next, and nothing can prevent his election as chairman of the Republican national committee. Cornelius N. Bliss is to arrive to-morrow morning, and the Republicans who object to Mr. Cortelyou are to have interviews with Mr. Bliss, whom they hold largely responsible for Mr. Cortelyou's selection

MURPHY WOULD BE NATIONAL CHAIRMAN. Gov. Franklin Murphy of New Jersey had a talk with Elihu Root to-day, in which Mr. Murphy submitted this proposition: Murphy to be chairman of the national committee and Mr. Cortelyou to be chairman of an executive committee to be named by the President. Mr. Koot, who is to be temporary chairman of the convention, had no suggestion to make to Gov. Murphy's had no suggestion to make to dov. Mulphy ideas.

The puti-Cortelyou men then made a united declaration to the effect that they would reject Mr. Cortelyou, the President's choice for chairman of the committee, unless Presidents thousavell gave them assurances that immediately after the committee to fill his place with one of their own number.

The of President will give no such assurances, and Mr. Cortelyou will be elected of airman. Whether he remains as chairman in the event of the President selection is a matter which the Fresident will decide. I understand Mr. Cortelyou is to such as the contest of the President will decide. It was after receiving this message that Senator Scott advised Senator Foraker and Senator Penrose to take their medicine.

The Vice-Presidential talk to-day was distributed between Senator about evenly distributed between senator Fairbanks of Indiaus and Representatives Hitt and Causon of Illinois, with possibly a little more Cannon talk than for the past a little more Cannon talk than for the part forty-eight hours.

Senator Fairbanks, it was learned, has been informed that President Roosevelt spoke of him in the White House the other night as "that woolly horse from Indiana."
Mr. Fairbanks is considered the exemplification of "Senatorial dignity, and his friends resent the alleged remark of the President concerning "that woolly horse from Indiana."

This remark penetrated every nook and corner of the Auditorium Annex, the head-

Tresident. Concerning that would not be remark penetrated every nook and corner of the Auditorium Annex, the head-quarters of the national Republicans, and Senator Scott, acting chairman of the Republican national committee and sponsor of, the Elkins Vice-President candidacy, pinned a Fairbanks, button the size of a small pie plate on his coat during the morning and kept it in view long enough to advise everybody how the land lies.

"Good morning, Mr. Vice-President," said Senator Scott to Senator Fairbanks, as they met in the hotel lobby.

"Senator is good enough," said Fairbanks, raising his hand in a deprecating

ALABAMA PUTS IT UP TO FAIRBANKS. Senator Fairbanks said to-night that he didn't really want anything until after the Indiana delegation held their caucus on Monday night. Representatives of the Alabama delegation called on Senator Fairbanks and reminded him that Alabama was the only State which had instructed its delegates to vote for him and then they asked:

"Will it embarrass you, Senator, if we ebey our instructions and vote for you in the convention for Vice-President?"

This was a poser. The Alabama folks were really the only ones here who had the authority of privilege to put such an inquiry to Mr. Pairbanks. He begged to be excused from giving a definite answer until after the Indianans had caucused on Monday night. P. Goodrich, chairman of the James P. Goodrich, chairman of the Indiana State committee and one of the four delegates at large, and John B. Cockran, the delegate in charge of the arrangements of the Hoosier delegation, came in to-day and gave the Fairbanks boom a goodly push. They distributed 12,500 buttons and hired the Second Regiment band, which will furnish the music for the Fairbanks demonstration. This was the band to which Senator Scott so hisppily referred.

of President Rossevelt's friends

One: of President Rossevelt's friends said:
"If we can't get Cannon we will take Hitt. As for Fairbanks, nobody knows whether he wants to be nominated."
As soon as this remark was passed around a Western Republican of national fams, with more directness than delicacy, referring to Mr. Hitt's illness in Washington, said:

"They'd better quit on Hitt. It's time to quit when they take the oxygen tank into your room."

Three of New York's four delegates at large arrived to-day. They were Senator Platt, Senator Depew and Governor-Chairman Odell. Frank Black, the remaining delegate at large, is to arrive to-morrow. Senator Platt said that he believed that Senator Fairbanks would be nominated. All the New Yorkers are aware that President Roosevelt has designated Cornelius N. Governer-Chairman. Odell is not partial to the Blins programme and desires the election of William D. Warren of Buffalo. William L. Ward of Westchester, Representative James S. Unless the national committee receives word to the contrary from President Roosevelt, the convention will adjourn next Wednesday night. unless the Louisiana and Wisconsin contests take up the time of the convention on Wednesday, the nominations can very easily be made on that day.

All agree that there is but two days' work for the convention and that the effect may be unpleasant if its proceedings are dragged along until Thursday. It was not believed to-night that the President will alter his plans. If he does not, it is the very general opinion that not half the delegates will participate in the nomination for Vice-President, and that as soon as the President is named there will be a break for the trains out of town.

Governor-Chairman Odell to-night reenforced Senator Depew's boom for Speaker Cannon for the vice-presidential nomination. The Governor-Chairman psoclaimed that in his opinion, Speaker Cannon is the only Republican to nominate.

formed Mr. Ward that he desired Mr. Ward to be Mr. Sheldon's successor.

It has, on the contrary, been announced by confidertial friends of the President that the latter and Mr. Cortelyou both desired the election of Cornelius N. Bliss to this place. Sentor Henry Clay Hansbrough of Devil's Lake, N. D., made the stern declaration to-night that he was not a "stand-patter" on the tariff by any means, and that the whole Northwest wanted the tariff revised; furthermore, that he intends to put up a fight in the committee on resolutions to have the tariff plank accord with the views of the Iowa Republicans. President Roosevelt's friends said that Senator Hansbrough will be snubbed if he attempts to kick up a fuss on the lines he suggests.

PLATT WON'T COME OUT FOR CANNON.

PLATT WON'T COME OUT FOR CANNON. PLATT WON'T COME OUT FOR CANNON.
Senator Platt had a talk with Representative James S. Sherman to-night at the Auditorium in which Mr. Sherman urged Mr. Platt to come out and advocate Speaker Cannon as the candidate for Vice-President, Mr. Platt declined to accede to Representative Sherman's wishes on the ground that Speaker Cannon was, without the slightest doubt, sincere in his determination not to accept the nomination.

Representative Sherman has been booming Speaker Cannon since his arrival here. CONVENTION JOTTINGS.

CHICAGO, June 18.—The Auditorium Hotel has cut up the big parlor on the lake front of the first floor into several smaller rooms, which have been rented for headquarters to the various delegations that have their sleeping rooms here. Ohio, Massachusetts, New York, Nebraska and Missouri are in these new apartments.

Massachusetts brought the most stationery with it, 40,000 ...eets of paper and 10,000 envelopes. There are ninety-eight men in the delegation and Secretary Reynolds of the State committee, who is here making the arrangements for them, says that they are all literary. He does not fear that any of the paper will be left over, but is worried because only one writing table, capable of seating four men at time, has been placed in the room.

There is no hope of having Senator Lodge use any of it making up the platform. That four writing tables, capable of seating sixteen men at a time, but they have prowided no stationery.

Nebraska has got into a row with Missouri over which room it shall have. One of the new rooms is completely decorated and the Missouri delegation decided that it would take this one as soon as Committeeman Kerens saw it. The Nebraska men want it, too, and the hotel does not know how to adjust the matter.

"But are you sure that this hotel is absolutely fireproof," asked the wife of a delegate who arrived yesterday.

"Madam," said the manager of the hotel, "if this hotel was not absolutely fireproof we would have burned it down twenty times during the first five years it was in operation when the Sheriff was always squatting on the front doorstep. You can rest easy, for if it wasn't fireproof it wouldn't be here."

They have an "open church" in Chicago. It is the Wabach Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, and every person going to the convention on the street cars from the north will have to pass it. Across the main entrance is a great sign "The Open Church."

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM BOTH Lower down is an electric sign directly over the doors to the edifice, big letters spelling the word "Hope." Every one who enters that church leaves hope behind, but that is not what the pastor thought of when he had the signs put up.

"From N'York, eh?" said a Chicago man as he climbed aboard a cable car entering a seat at the end of which sat a man.

"Yep," said the man in the end seat.

"Thought so," said the Chicago man.

"We don't have any end seat hogs in the city. Guess they grow only in N'York."

Then he began to shoot tobacco juice all over the floor and looked as though he had settled the Eastern city once for all.

United States Senator Joseph Ralph Burton of Kansas is here and can be identified by the fact that all the Senators are as far away from him as they can get. The Senate has not acted on Burton's case since he was convicted of a criminal offence in acting as attorney for a "get-rich-quick" concern before the Post Office Department and sentenced to jail in St. Louis.

omes Department and sentenced to juit in St. Isouis.

He has appealed from the sentence, and until the courts have finished with the case the Senate will do nothing. It is noticeable that all the Senators seek to avoid him. Four years ago, when President Roosevelt was a delegate from New York to the Philadelphia convention, the Kansas delegates held a meeting and voted to support him for the Vice-Presidential nomination.

Burton was a big man in the Kansas outfit and headed a committee of Sunflower delegates to Gov. Roosevelt's roomand there told him of the State's decision in a most complimentary speech. When Iowa withdrew Senator Dolliver and nominated Roosevelt the Kansas men unfurled a big banner marked "Kansas First for Roosevelt" and led the cheering.

Another Senator who attracts attention is Reed Smoot, whose prominence in the Mormon Church has brought him before mormon Church has brought him before a committee of Senators for investigation. The committee is going to Sait Lake City to lock up matters there. Senator Smoot has no fear of the outcome. Every one wants to have a look at him, and the women seem to be more interested in him than in any one else. Mr. Smoot is not a polygamist.

The Hon. Elihu Root, who is to be tem porary chairman of the convention, arrived to-day with his speech in his pocket.

The only portrait put up so far in the convention hall is an oil painting of Sen-stor Hanna of heroic size. It hangs over stor Hanna of heroic size. It hangs over the chairman's platform, so it will be visible in all parts of the hall except to those in the galleries behind it. Big Ameri-can flags are draped about the picture. There are no portraits of President McKin-ley on view now, and those who have seen the hall wonder whether any will be put up. It is explained here that the citizens' committee had charge of the descentions committee had charge of the decorations in the hall.

Through some error a mistake was made who are to receive tickets, and they were told to call at the conventon hall and get them yesterday afternoon. No one was on hand to tell the seekers about the mis-take and they wandered around for hours looking for the secretary of the conven-tion or the secretary of the national committee, who was busy in the meeting at which Gov. IaFollette of Wisconsin and his radical big four were thrown and his radical big four were thrown hrough the windows.

Finally a policeman in the employ of the Collseum learned that the tickets were not to be given out until Monday morning and was kept busy all day explaining to those who called for them.

It is declared to be the ambition of Gov. La Follette to succeed United States Senator Quarles of Wisconsin when his term expires. Some of the Governor's friends say that he is a finer orator than William J. Bryan, whom they seem to regard as the best known and best beloved speaker now before the public.

This was Derby Day and all the delegates who like horseracing went to the track Some of those who didn't go got a bet down

Adam Bede, John Dalsell, Senator Depew, Senator Dolliver and ex-Senator Wolcott. These meetings, it is given out, are not to be in the interest of Mr. Hitt, but in the interests of all Resublicance.

National Committeeman Graeme Stewar of Illinois took the national committee to witness the Derby to-day. None of the members could bet on the grounds, for Mayor Harrison had $00 policemen there to prevent it, but bookmakers were about all the hotels all day long taking

All of Chicago, male and female, that did not go to the Derby stood on the sidewalk and watched the crowded automobiles, coaches, drags and other vehicles.

The national committee won't tell how many seats were given to President Roosevelt to admit his friends to the hall. The Chicago people want to know, for the supply is already exhausted and they feel that they have been treated badly. The hall is much smaller than the politicians thought it would be, and they are indig-

CHICAGO, June 18.-California's delegation, all a-glitter with big gold badges, arrived to-day with a band at its head, the first one that has been heard since the delegates began to arrive. The Nevada, Hawaii and Philippine delegates came along at the same time and made a fine show. Ex-Senator Billy Mason of Illinois, who was not reelected to adopt a plank guaranteeing independence to the Philippine Islands.

The Filipino delegates are all American citizens, domiciled in the islands. The convention will allow two of them to have seats in the convention, and that means representation on the various committees.

The californians brought with them a lot of wines, fruits and the like, just to let the other fellows see what the State can produce. Their identity was unmistakable, for the badges of gold were plain enough. But in order that there should be no possibility of mistake, the delegates brought along a lot of banners and flags with their names inscribed on them.

NEW ORLEANS, June 18 .- The Lily White Republicans here have been notified that the decision of the national committee against them, while it leaves them no longer the regular Republican party of Louisiana. will not interfere with their holding the Federal offices, all of which save one they control. The action of the committee, however, is generally regarded as meaning the early downfall of the party, which showed considerable strength in McKinley's day and nearly carried the State in 1896. Two-thirds of the whites broke away after Floosevelt's enunciation of his theories as to the negro, and it is thought that more than half the renainder will desert, after the rebuff administered by the national committee.

A call has been sent out by the national executive committee of the Socialist Labor

When buying a Piano, why not buy the kind which every member of the family can play?

Such an instrument is the NEW PIANOLA PIANO

RECENT English critic of our customs expresses astonishment at two things he finds in this country: First, the general prosperity as indi-cated by the large number of American homes containing pianos. Second, the great proportion of these pianos which are never touched.

He wonders why so many people in the United States invest large sums of money in something they cannot put to any practical use.

This condition, the Pianola is doing much to remedy. The Pianola Piano carries the idea a step further—a most important step—by making the Pianola an integral part of a piano. Thus, without the aid of any outside attachment, the piano may be played both by those who have mastered technique and those who are unable to strik? a single chord with the fingers. The Pianola Piano, in combining with an upright piano at its highest state of perfection the means by which any one may play it, takes rank as from the hand-playing method to the Planola method. Lower a pair of pedals and side back a panel in the front of the case and the instrument is all ready to be played by means of a perforated roll of music.

Close the alide and raise the pedals and you have an instrument differing in no respect from the familier which may be played with the fingers by those who nave acquired the ability to de so.

In other words, the Piano's Piano is a combination in one case of the two most popu'ar instruments of medern times for producing music. There is nothing to move up in fron of the key-board when the Pianols m thod of playing is desired, the Pianols mechanism occupying the hitherto unused space in a piano-forte. This union of the two instruments does not detract in the sightest detail from the excellence of the piano's tone, touch or action.

The type of Pianola used in the Pianola Piano is the Metrostyle-which means the latest and best of all plano-players. With the advent of the Pianola Piano there no longer remains any excuse for the reproach of having a uscless musical instrument in the home.

Prices $600 to $1000.

Purchasable on moderate monthly payments. All other makes of planes taken in exchange.

Exchanged Pianos of Many Makes at Important Reductions A significant result of the introduction of the Pianola Piano is the large number of pianos of representative makes which are being received in part payment. When pat in thorough order these instruments are offered through our Exchange Department at very low prices. As these pianos have in most cases had very little use, they are remarkable for their fine condition, differing in this respect from any offering of used pianos anywhere. The complaint is of a public game of baseball: i. e., of a game held out to the public, i. e., of a game to which the public were invited, and to which an admission fee was charged. Is such a game prohibited by statute? I think it is.
The various penal Sunday statutes were collected together, and reenacted as a chapter in revised form in our Penal Code, which was passed in 1881.
Section 259 of the Penal Code is as follows:
"The first day of the week being by general consent set apart for rest and religious uses, the law prohibits the doing on that day of certain acts hereinafter specified, which are serious interruptions of the repose and religious liberty of the community."

This section is a sort of preamble: and it is noteworthy that the "general consent" of the community in observing Sunday is given by it as the reason and basis of our Sunday laws. The wishes of the community, unerefore, should have much to do with their enforcement, as is the case with all law which depend for their vigor on public opinion.

Section 281 summarizes, under general heads the acts so prohibited, the second head being in the words "Public sports and shows. This word "public excludes private sports and shows. This section was repealed in 1883, but reference to it is still necessary in getting at the intention and scope of the whole chapter.

Section 186 enumerates the acts embraced under this head, and is as follows:

"All shooting, hunting, fighting, playing horse racing, gaming or over rubit of sports, exercises, pastimes or over rubit of sports, exercises, pastimes or shows." This general clause is not only expressly limited to public sports, exercises, pastimes or shows. This general clause is not only expressly limited to public sports, do, but is a continuation of the same enterory of acts, and not the introduction of a new category. But it suffices for the present case that proceedings are much elated over Justice Caynor's decision. They have given Mr. Clarke assurance that witnesses will be forthcoming to fully substantiate the complaint. It is expected, however, that under the circumstances the case will go to the Appellate Division.

President Ebbetts of the Brooklyn Base-

President Ebbetts of the Brooklyn Baseball Club said last night that he had not received any notification from the authorities that no gan ebetween the Giants and the Superbas would be permitted to-day at the Washington Park grounds.

"The game will be played as advertised," he said "positively."

The Rev. Arthur W. Byrt, paster of the Warren Street Methodist Church, called at Police Headquarters in Brooklyn yesterday afternoon and said that he hoped the police would take note of Justice Gaynor's decision and stop the game to-day. If they didn't, he said, he would take pains to see that somebody was held to account.

Offer for Munroe and Buhlin to Fight at Chicago.

Billy Madden is just now busy trying to arrange a six round bout in Chicago between Jack Munroe and Gus Ruhlin, should the Jack Munroe and Gus Ruhlin, should the Miner be prevented from meeting Jim Setries at San Francisco. Madden seems confident that Munroe and Jeffries will not come together, at least during this month, and thinks that if Munroe agrees to face Ruhlin in Chicag he can get a good slice of meney, besides adding to his reputation by defeating Ruhim.

The Waverly A. C. of Chicago has been in communication with Madden, and has notified him that if he can induce Munroe to face Ruhlin he can have a date at the club before the end of this month. If the fight with Jeffries does not fall through all negotiations will be off and the club will then endeavor to bring Peter Maher and Ruhlin together for eix rounds.

"Most assuredly. I wouldn't cross the pond without calling to see my old friend Mr. Croker," he answered.

"Who will be nominated by the Democrats, in your opinion?"

"Cleveland, I hope. Cleveland on a conservative platform would be a winning tioket for the Democrats."

The Democratic Club sent a lot of flowers to the steamer. Some of those on the pier were Commissioner of Accounts Hertle, Secretary Alfred M. Downs of the Fire Department, Secretary Walter of the Aqueduct Commission, Magistrate Mayo, Highways Commissioner Dalton, George Spinney and Vincent Slattery of Horgan & Slattery.
